ABOUT ME

Front-End Developer with junior full-stack skills and web designer. I love every aspect of development, from the visual design of a website to writing the code that implements its functionality. I am looking for opportunities that will allow me to grow professionally, challenge my skills in dynamic environments, and step out of my comfort zone by pushing my limits.

WORK EXPERIENCE

14/02/2023 – 28/03/2024 Milano, Italy

INTERACTIVE DEVELOPER PUBLICIS SAPIENT

Publicis Sapient is an international company that helps its clients through all phases of website design, creation, management, and consulting. As an Interactive Developer, I developed, monitored, and maintained various web pages, collaborating with different teams on strategic projects. I managed daily requests through Jira and contributed to the update of the Fiat Chrysler/PSA websites to the new Stellantis platform, as well as supporting the expansion of the new Fiat websites. Additionally, I trained and supported new arrivals and interns during their onboarding process.

ORGANISATIONAL SKILLS

Soft Skills

I have strong team integration skills and thrive in multicultural environments, with a strong focus on order and organization. I am determined to complete daily tasks and maintain a positive attitude, even under stress. I enjoy expanding my knowledge and collaborating, using techniques like note-taking, diagrams, and to-do lists during brainstorming and design sessions. I firmly believe that education and empathy are essential, and that a kind gesture can make a difference in a workday.

PROJECTS

Progetto Portfolio

I developed my portfolio website to showcase my skills as a developer, with the goal of presenting completed projects, experiences, and technical abilities in a professional format. It includes work experiences, collaborations, websites, and projects I have developed.
